8. Teacher Presentation—None

9. Board Highlights—Mrs. Jackie Swainson- Not present at the meeting
Jenn found the board highlights online. They discussed Buses and bus safety, summer school availability and also the mustard seed program.

10. Administration Report--Mrs. Eadie-Gyori & Mrs. Dawn Normoyle

- Artist and Residence went really smooth and the art was beautiful from it.
- Gaga Ball went up really fast and has been a really huge success. It has handles so we can pick it up and move it once and awhile to get better surface/grass area. Cost was $1700.
- Nov.25th is next professional learning day and will continue with our reading learning. We will also do more indigenous learning as well.
- Teachers have been making lots of shifts in their Math learning/teaching and it has made an improvement in our kids.
- Sabrina Mcleod is now our new teacher that is taking over for Jessica Wilson that is now on Maternity leave.
- Kelsey had went to a full time position when Jolene took a leave but then she wanted to cut back a bit so Connette is now helping out in the office as she has a accounting background.
- Halloween dance was a success as was the video that we had made.
- There will be another Christmas dance on the last day of school(Dec.23).
- Remembrance Day ceremony went well.
- Presentations for school Council :
- January- Yes Program (Kristy and Chelsea).
- April – Indigenous lead Carolyn Munzer
- March or May – Curriculum orientation - Jason
- February – Flipside – Krista
- Christmas concerts Dec 13 grade 1 & 2 and Dec 14. Grade 3 & 4
- Grades 5 & 6 will not do a concert. They can join the choir or there is a drama club as well that they can do.
- Volleyball is going now for grade 5 &6. Should be done Nov. 28th with a tournament to follow.

11. Correspondence Received - none

12. Next Meeting January 17, 2023

- Additional info – is if we would like to do the food bank/toy drive again in the back loop. Everyone agreed to do it so will do it from 8:20am-8:45 am and 3:00pm-3:30pm. We will do this on Dec. 6, 7, & 8th Jenn will email out to everyone to look who can fill in the time slots.
